National Day of Prayer ~ May 4

Throughout history, there have been few national days of prayer. In fact, there were only a few noteworthy ones between the 1700s – 1900s. The National Day of Prayer that we know today was founded in 1952, and it was co-founded effort between the United States Congress and President Harry S. Truman.

The holiday was signed into law by President Truman, and every president since has signed a proclamation that encourages Americans to pray on and celebrate this day. The national holiday has always been the first Thursday of May every year since it was founded in 1952. It stands as a day that continues the decision-making of the country’s founding fathers, which used the morals from biblical lessons in difficult situations. Basically, using God’s guidance to make important decisions in the country and for yourself. Just like Thanksgiving and Christmas, the National Day of Prayer has become recognized by Americans nationwide, and it is even recognized and celebrated in all Hallmark calendars. Knowing that America was founded by people of European descent with predominantly Christian backgrounds, it’s no surprise that this holiday was originally created to celebrate the Christian faith. National Day of Prayer was an effort to ask American citizens “to turn to God in prayer and meditation”.

National Day of Prayer Activities

- 1- Take a moment to pray
- 2- Take time to research interesting facts about your faith’s history
- 3- Donate money or volunteer at your house of faith

Facts About National Day of Prayer

- 1- There’s been over 140 national days of prayer
- 2- Christians represent 73.7% of America’s religious population
- 3- Roughly 45% of Americans pray every day
- 4- 21% of Americans pray to win the lottery

FAMILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Father, increase our family's love for one another.
May we honor each other in times of happiness or hardship, bearing with one another in love, just as You love us.
In a special way, help us strive for holiness in our current states of life.

Should You call some of us to the priesthood or religious life,
help us to respond with courage and joy.
Together, we make heaven our goal, and pledge, with Your grace,
to help each other on life's journey to You.
Through the intercession of the Holy Family:
Jesus, Mary, and Joseph.

Amen

Easter Prayer

The veil of darkness
Transformed to the brightest light.
The most dreadful end
Became the most beautiful beginning.
The depths of despair
Fade to reveal hope everlasting.
The curse of death
Defeated by eternal life.
