St. Ignatius of Loyola ~ Feast Day: July 31st

St. Ignatius of Loyola (Íñigo López de Loyola) was born in 1491, one of 13 children of a family of minor nobility in northern Spain. As a young man Ignatius Loyola was inflamed by the ideals of courtly love and knighthood and dreamed of doing great deeds.

But in 1521 Ignatius was gravely wounded in a battle with the French. While recuperating, Ignatius Loyola experienced a conversion. Reading the lives of Jesus and the saints made Ignatius happy and aroused desires to do great things. Ignatius realized that these feelings were clues to God's direction for him.

Over the years, Ignatius became expert in the art of spiritual direction. He collected his insights, prayers, and meditations in his book the Spiritual Exercises first published in 1548, one of the most influential books on the spiritual life ever written. With a small group of friends, Ignatius Loyola founded the Society of Jesus, or the Jesuits. Ignatius conceived the Jesuits as "contemplatives in action" which also describes the many Christians who have been touched by Ignatian spirituality.

Ignatius was beatified in 1609, and then canonized, receiving the title of Saint on 12 March 1622. His feast day is celebrated on 31 July. He is the patron saint of the Basque provinces of Gipuzkoa and Biscay, as well as the Society of Jesus, and was declared patron saint of all spiritual retreats by Pope Pius XI in 1922. Ignatius is also a foremost patron saint of soldiers.

Ignatius of Loyola Quotes

Act as if everything depended on you; trust as if everything depended on God.

Love is shown more in deeds than in words.

If our church is not marked by caring for the poor, the oppressed, the hungry, we are guilty of heresy.

Whatever you are doing, that which makes you feel the most alive ... that is where God is.

True Freedom

True Freedom is found in our Lord Jesus Christ who liberated us from sin through His death and resurrection. As we rejoice with our fellow-Americans for the independence we enjoy in the United States, let us never forget those who are restricted by the chains of poverty. Why not celebrate your freedom by an act of kindness? One way to do this is by donating clothing, small appliances, shoes, linens, sheets, towels, knickknacks, tools, toys, stuffed animals, and children's books to our Donation Bin. Thank you.
