St. John Paul II ~ Feast Day October 22

May 18, 1920 — April 2, 2005, Vatican City; (beatified May 1, 2011; canonized April 27, 2014). He was the bishop of Rome and head of the Roman Catholic Church from 1978 to 2005. He was the first non-Italian pope in 455 years and the first from a Slavic country. His pontificate of more than 26 years was the third longest in history. As part of his effort to promote greater understanding between nations and between religions, he undertook numerous trips abroad, traveling far greater distances than had all other popes combined, and he extended his influence beyond the church by campaigning against political oppression and criticizing the materialism of the West. He also issued several unprecedented apologies to groups that historically had been wronged by Catholics, most notably Jews and Muslims. His unabashed Polish nationalism and his emphasis on nonviolent political activism aided the Solidarity movement in communist Poland in the 1980s and ultimately contributed to the peaceful dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991. John Paul used his influence among Catholics and throughout the world to advance the recognition of human dignity and to deter the use of violence.

How to Celebrate the Feast Day

- You can pray the Rosary or participate in a novena to honor him and ask for his intercession.
- Consider his encyclicals and speeches about the love of God and the importance of welcoming Christ into one's life.
- Take a walk or go outside, as St. John Paul II was known for his love of nature and the outdoors, and for encouraging young people to participate in activities like hiking and camping.
